OFFERS THE FOLLOWING ADVANTAGES.

Its course of instruction is thorough, embracing Latin, Greek, English, French, German, Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Natural History, Chemistry, Physiology, Moral Philosophy, Mental Philosophy, Political Economy, General History, Biblical Literature, and a Business Course.

There is also a Summer School of English, Mathematics, Ancient and Modern Languages.

Session—From July 6, to August 31, 1881.

Objects—This school is designed: 1. To prepare young men to enter the higher classes in any College or University. 2. To afford College advantages to those, who, from lack of time or means, cannot attend during the regular session. 3. To prepare persons engaged in the work of instruction to teach successfully the higher branches of English and pure Mathematics.

For particulars, address,

R. E. BLACKWELL, A. M.

R. B. SMITHEY, A. M.

Or,

Its grade of scholarship is high; yet it does not exclude young men who are unprepared to enter the higher classes—arrangements have been made by the organization of INTRODUCTORY CLASSES, which are taught by the Professors themselves, in which they are prepared for higher departments of the College.

It offers this year a course of study by which the student can accomplish, in three years, the subjects which will entitle him to the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy, (B. P.); and in four years, those which will entitle him to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, (A. B.) viz: For the three years' course, graduation with distinction in Latin, Chemistry, German, and distinction in Intermediate English, Junior Mathematics, Junior Applied Mathematics, Junior Moral Philosophy, Political Science, Junior Natural Philosophy and Physiology. For the four years' course, graduation with distinction in Latin, Chemistry, and distinction in Intermediate Greek, (or graduation with distinction in German, and distinction in Junior French,) Intermediate English, Intermediate Mathematics, Junior Applied Mathematics, Junior Moral Philosophy, Metaphysics, Political Science and Junior Natural Philosophy.

Its expenses are moderate, not exceeding $115 per term, or $230 for the entire Scholastic year. No charge is made for room rent, servant's hire, libraries, or for lectures on Biblical Literature. All ministerial students receive instruction in all the Schools without charge for tuition.

Its location is remarkable for its extraordinary healthfulness and accessibility, being 16 miles north of Richmond, immediately on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, on the most elevated plateau between the Potomac and James rivers.

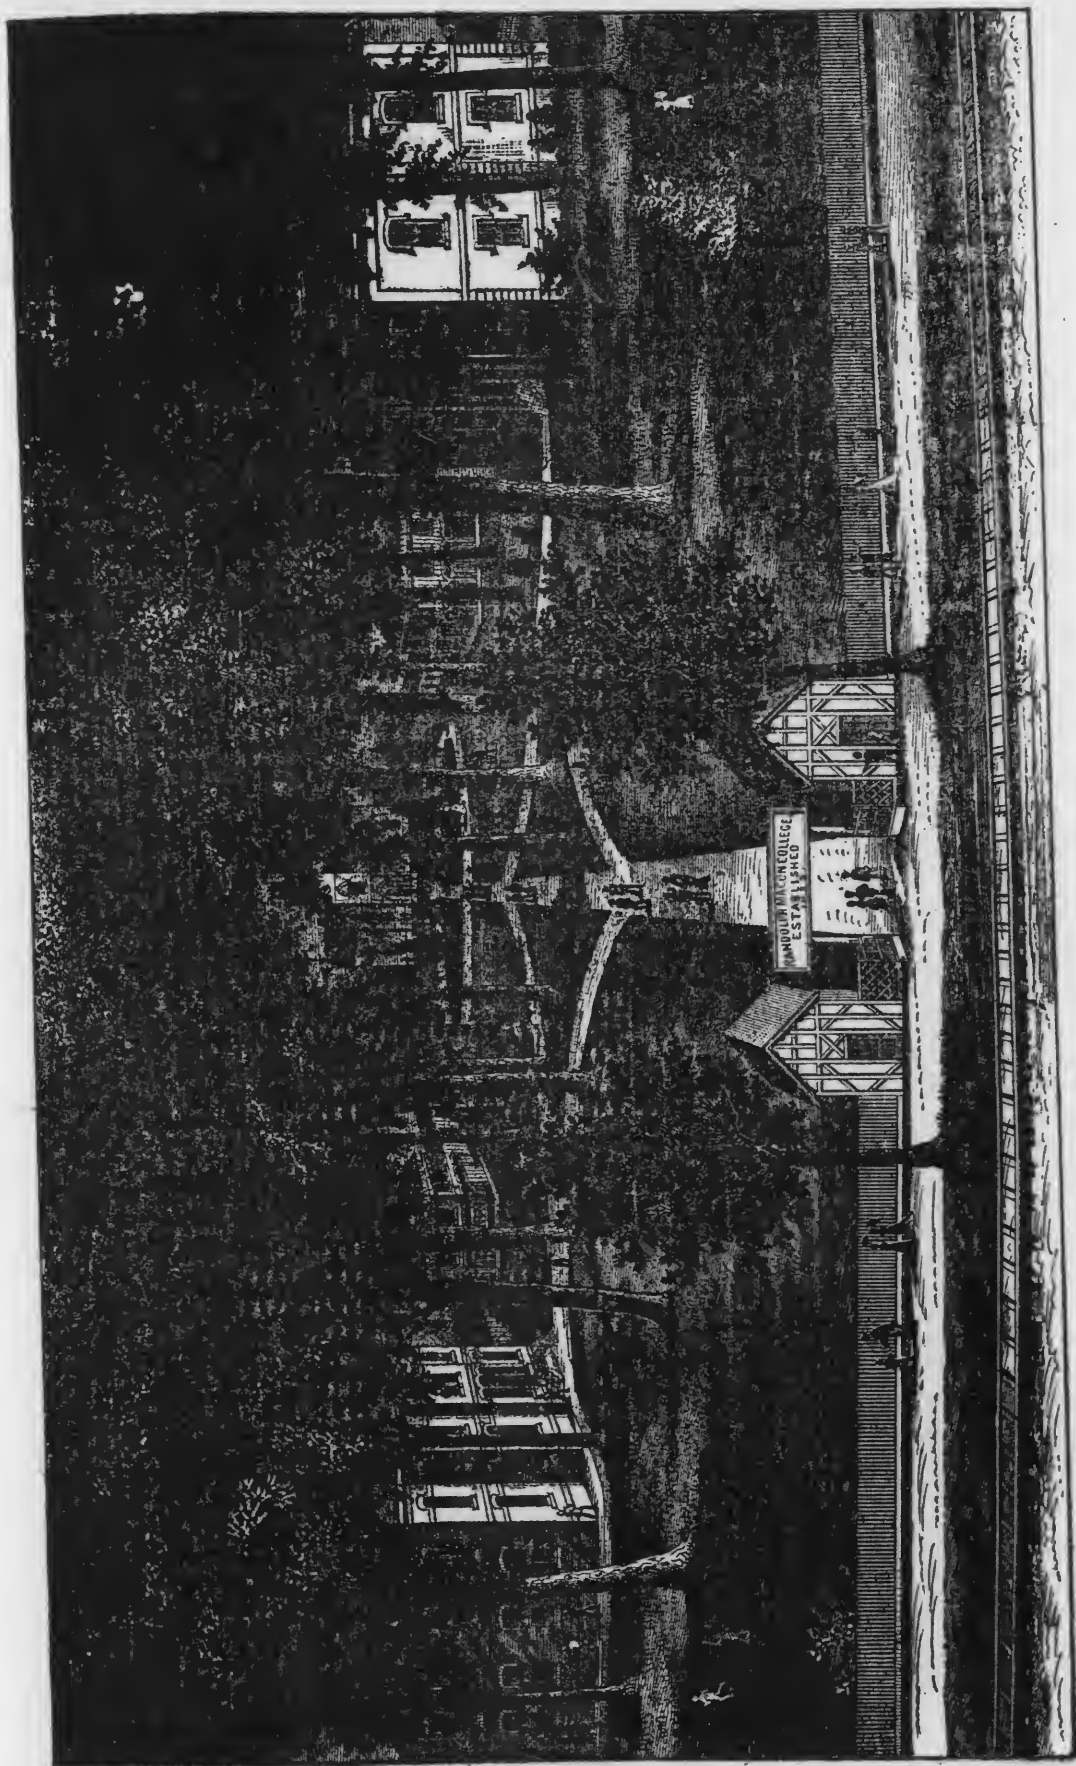

Its religious influences are invaluable; yet no interference is allowed with the denominational preferences of the students. Prayers are conducted every day in the College Chapel; public worship is held every Sabbath, both morning and evening. A Sunday School is in successful operation under the special superintendence of one of the Professors. A weekly prayer meeting is held by the students. There are also services regularly held in the village churches by ministers of other denominations.

FOR CATALOGUE, address—

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Bishop H. N. McTYEIRE, President Board of Trust.

SESSIONS, FROM SEPTEMBER 1st TO MAY 31st.

THIS UNIVERSITY IS ORGANIZED IN SIX DEPARTMENTS:

1. THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY, LITERATURE AND SCIENCE.

2. THE DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY, THOS. O. SUMMERS, D. D., L.L. D., DEAN.

3. THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW, THOS. H. MALONE, M. A., DEAN.

The Buildings of the University are handsome and spacious, having cost, with the outfit of the lecture rooms and the grounds, over half a million dollars.

The Chemical and Physical Apparatus is very extensive and of the first quality, having been made to order by the best European skill. The Cabinets are adequate to all the purposes of instruction, and are steadily growing. The School of Engineering is well equipped for thorough instruction, theoretical and practical, and affords unusual facilities for applying, experimentally, the lessons of the class-room.

Board and lodgings, with fuel and lights, can be had in the neighborhood of the University in approved families, or private boarding houses, at $18 a month.

Theological students are provided with board and lodgings, at $10 a month. The new Wesley Hall, the gift of Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt, nears completion. Besides lecture-rooms, chapel, and library, it will contain a boarding department, with lodgings for one hundred and sixty theological students, and apartments for three families.

Ministers of the Gospel, and the sons of pastors of any church, are admitted to the Academic and Theological Departments of the University free of charge for tuition.

Rev. EZRA FURLONG BUSEY.

We enter on the death roll this year the name of Rev. E. F. Busey—a name that has been called and responded to in open Conference for thirty-eight years, but must now be dropped from the Minutes, yet not from memory—for this name will continue as “ointment poured forth,” and will be embalmed in the affections of our hearts, as long as memory lasts.

Rev. E. F. Busey was born in Berkeley county, West Virginia, October 6th, 1819, and ended his mortal life and labors in Baltimore, at 10:30 o'clock, P. M., May 13th, 1880. Of his ancestry, early life, educational advantages, the influences that shaped and moulded his character, his conversion and preparation for the ministry, we have no certain knowledge; we can only speak of him from the time he entered the ministry until his death.

In March, 1842, the Baltimore Conference met in East Baltimore, and Brother Busey was received on trial into the traveling connection, and was sent to South Branch Circuit, with Horace Holland as senior colleague. In 1843, he travelled Moorefield Circuit with Alfred G. Chenowith; 1844, Front Royal Circuit with Robert Cadden. In 1845, Milton, in Northumberland District, with Alem Britten as colleague, and Samuel Brison for Presiding Elder. In 1846, he was stationed in North Baltimore, with John Bear and R. S. Vinton; 1847, he was returned to the same charge, with John Bear and John S. Martin. In 1848, he was stationed at Union Chapel, in Washington city, and in 1849, at Alexandria, Virginia; 1850, at Warrenton, Virginia; 1851-2, at Emory Station, Baltimore; in 1853, he was appointed to East Baltimore, with H. Tarring and E. R. Veitch for colleagues. He was returned to East Baltimore in 1854, with E. R. Veitch and J. Hoffman Waugh; 1855, in Frederick city, with E. Dorsey; 1856, again in Frederick city.

This year he was happily married to Miss. S. Jane Corner, daughter of the late James Corner. This marriage was blessed with two children, a daughter who preceded him from earth but a little, just as she was blooming into womanhood, and a son, who comforted and nursed him in his last illness, and who still survives. His wife died some years ago. During this year also, the Conference was divided into the Baltimore and East Baltimore Conferences, and Brother Busey remained with the former. In 1857, the Conference met in Washington, D. C., and Brother Busey was stationed in Fredericksburg, Virginia. In 1858, 1859, in Baltimore city station, with N. J. B. Morgan, B. F. Brook, W. T. D. Clemm and W. V. Tudor. In 1860-61, at Fayette street.

During the last year in this charge the civil war began between the North and South, and Brother Busey was cut off, by military lines, from his brethren in Virginia, with whom he stood pledged, by solemn resolution and vote, to withdraw from the jurisdiction of the General Conference of the M. E. Church.

The four years next ensuing, were dark and full of peril. Yet Brother Busey, with others, maintained an independent relation, and formed an organization which became the nucleus or basis on which the M. E. Church, South, was afterwards planted in Baltimore city. From 1862 to 1865, he preached in the Assembly Rooms, corner Lombard and Hanover streets, to what, in time, became the Central Congregation; and in 1865, at Winans' Chapel, to what afterwards became St Paul's Congregation.

In February, 1866, he met in Alexandria, Virginia, with his brethren of the Baltimore Conference, from whom he had been separated for five years, and here was assigned to Rockingham District as Presiding Elder, which he travelled four years. 1870-71, he travelled Roanoke District. From the Conference, which met in Warrenton, Virginia, 1872, he was sent to Alexandria, Virginia, where he remained two years. In 1874, he was appointed to Baltimore District, to which he was re-appointed in 1875-6-7.

In the Minutes of 1878, his name appears amongst the superannuated; in which list he was continued in 1879. This, however, was not at his request. He asked for a supernumerary relation, but, in view of his long and faithful service and his feeble health, his Conference thought the superannuated relation his proper place, and so granted it. In 1880, at his own request, he was ensered as supernumerary, and his name appears in connection with Baltimore Circuit.

This was his last appointment. He was not able to render service in this charge. He died soon after Conference.

As a Preacher, Brother Busey stood high—indeed, much above the ordinary level, and was a “workman that needeth not to be ashamed.” His sermons were laboriously and thoughtfully prepared, and betokened the fine rhetorical and logical faculties of his mind. He was exhaustive in his treatment of every subject he took in hand, conscientiously endeavoring to the full extent of his ability, to edify the church, and convince and save the erring. His preaching was systematic; all the parts of the sermon fitting so closely, and each part so related to the whole, that the discourse would have been incomplete without it. It was evangelical and doctrinal. He held close to the standards, and usually preached on some vital theme. With his views and convictions, he could not content himself with delivering only an essay on some popular or sensational theme. He pandered to no vitiated taste, and sought to gratify no distempered imagination, or please itching ears. He never yielded to the whims and clamors of the worldly minded for a diluted gospel, but faithfully held to the “form of sound words,” which is “good to the use of edifying.” His preaching was scriptural. There was an ingenious and successful attempt to weave in the very language of scripture, and an apt quotation of the appropriate text to fasten and prove the point of the sermon. His manner of delivery was calm, dispassionate, measured, and usually free from much emotion, but at times his feelings would rise with his theme, and his hearers would be borne along with him to the close. This was notably the case in the last sermons that he preached. In them he seemed to be in a special manner under the baptism of the Holy Ghost.

As a christian, Brother Busey may be regarded as an example to us in many things. We do not claim that our brother was absolutely perfect; he had his faults and weaknesses in common with all men, but he had no fault that was not under the control of divine grace; and it is our duty, in dealing with his memory, and in analyzing his character, not to mention these, but to mention those high and noble qualities which distinguished our brother, and in which he commended himself to us. He was noted for his transparency of character. His sincerity and honesty were apparent to all who knew him. His position was never doubtful on any point that required a positive decision, and his brethren always knew where he stood on the great questions that agitated the church during his ministry. He was too honest to conceal his convictions, and he was brave enough to contend for his principles, yet this was not done by controversy, or by austerity of manner, but by a firmness mildly adhered to. With this he combined an independence of spirit, which was a strong mark of his individuality: But while he held his own opinions, he had respect also for those of others. Assuming the right to think for himself, and following out his thoughts to their proper conclusion, being satisfied that he was right, he was unyielding; yet he respected the man who did not think with him.

He was a true friend. To one only slightly acquainted with him, he might have appeared cold and unsympathetic; but a closer acquaintance revealed a warmth of love, before unknown. The genuine qualities of his heart were disclosed in the freedom and abandon of intimate relationship; and once your friend, he never forsook you, unless by some act or neglect of your own you became estranged from him. His character was singularly pure. If the citizen of Zion has "clean hands and a pure heart," then our brother was fit "to ascend the hill of the Lord, and to stand in his holy place."

No stain of impurity, no breath of suspicion ever attached to his name or reputation, through his whole ministry, whether on the circuit, in the station, or on the district. He stood above reproach. And with all, and beneath all, giving tone and sympathy to his character, was a deep religious experience. A sound conversion, subsequent growth in grace and knowledge, and added maturity, formed the basis of the strong and vigorous manhood which marked our brother beloved. This experience glowed with an unwonted lustre just before he died. Those who saw and nursed him in his last illness enjoyed a privilege they will not soon forget. It was indeed a

"Chamber privileged beyond
The common walks of virtuous
Life, quite on the verge of heaven."

There were times when he seemed to catch glimpses of Heaven, and a holy rapture possessed his soul; then he would break out in expressions of glory. At one time he said, "Oh! I feel as though I could shout aloud the praises of God." At another time, "Now, Lord, let thy servant depart in peace." Rejoicing in the cross, he said: "Yes, the cross, the cross; Oh! if I could preach again, how I would hold up Christ, and him crucified." Holding a glass of water in his hand, he said, "I will soon drink the pure water from the river of Life."

A day or two before he died, Rev. Dr. Gibson entered his room and said, "Bro. Busey, how are you to-day?" He replied, "I am passing through the valley, and am near the other side;" then quoted, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in Heavenly places in Christ." The day he died he said to Rev. Dr. Cox, "I had expected to have been at home e'er this, but the Father willed it otherwise, amen, be it so." Again, Dr. Cox said, "Bro. Busey, you cannot stay much longer with us, have you any last words to say?" "Yes," he said, "My trust is in the Father, and his Son, Jesus Christ, and I hope to meet you all on the other side." When near death, Dr. Cox said, "You are suffering, but your sufferings will soon be over." "Yes," he said, "I will soon rest by the side of my dear wife and child." These were his last words. He passed away so quietly that it was hard to mark the moment he breathed his last.

On the following Sabbath his funeral service was conducted by Rev. S. Rodgers, D.D., assisted by Rev. Dr. A. E. Gibson of the M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. S. K. Cox, and others, in St. Paul's church, in the presence of a large congregation. From here we bore him to his grave, and just as the sun went down we laid his mortal remains by those of his wife and daughter, amongst the flowers and foliage of Greenmount cemetery. Here he sleeps in Jesus, and here we leave him.

Rev. JEHU HANK.

Rev. Jehu Hank was born in Monroe county, Va., March 26th, 1801. He was converted at a camp-meeting in 1818, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was licensed to preach in 1827, and was employed by the Presiding Elder on South Branch Circuit. In 1828 he was admitted on trial in the Baltimore Conference, and appointed to the Fincastle Circuit as junior preacher, his brother, Rev. Wm Hank, being preacher in charge. The labors of these men of God were attended with wonderful success—between three and four hundred souls were converted that year. In 1829 he was appointed preacher in charge of Chistiansburg Circuit. In 1830 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Soule. His health having declined, he asked for a location, which was granted. In 1834 he was readmitted in the Virginia Conference, and was ordained Elder in 1835. When the North Carolina Conference was formed from the territory of the Virginia Conference, Brother Hank became a member of the new Conference. Here he labored acceptably until 1847, when he again located and returned to his home in Monroe county, Va. In 1856 he was readmitted to the traveling connection in the Western Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, South, and after having traveled for several years, was granted a Supernumerary relation. After the close of the war he was transferred to the Baltimore Conference, remaining on the Supernumerary list until 1872, when he was made effective and appointed in charge of Gap Mills Circuit, where he served for two years. In 1876 he was placed on the Superannuated list, where he remained until his death. He was twice married—his first wife was Miss Matilda Bratton, who died March 1st, 1830; his second wife was Miss Susan K. Berger, of Pittsylvania county, Va., who survives him. All of his children are members of the Church of Christ, and one son, Rev. J. D. Hank, is a useful member of the Virginia Annual Conference. Brother Hank was a man of unblemished Christian character. His long and useful life was free from stain, and he has left to his children the priceless heritage of a good name. He was widely known throughout the church as one of the sweet singers of our Israel. His voice was rich, full and carefully trained, and his happy songs often stirred the hearts of the people, awakening emotions and preparing for the reception of gospel truth. He attended the session of the Lewisburg District Conference, held in Centreville, Monroe county, W. Va., in May last. In an address to the members of the Conference, he expressed his conviction of the fact that he would never enjoy the privilege of thus meeting his brethren in Conference again. On his way home from the District Conference he was taken sick, and after five weeks of intense suffering, he fell asleep in Jesus, July 7th, 1880. On his death bed he sang, "Jesus, lover of my soul," "There is rest for the weary," and other favorite hymns. His end was peace; he died in the Lord, and his works do follow him.

Rev. ENOCH G. JAMISON.

Rev. Enoch G. Jamison died December 10th, 1880, near Newport, Giles county, Virginia. But few particulars have been ascertained of his early history. He was born in Stafford county, Virginia, and was admitted on trial in the Baltimore Annual Conference in 1841, and sent to Covington Circuit as junior preacher with Rev. David Trout. From that time forward he served with faithfulness in various arduous fields of labor, upon missions and mountain circuits, and often with much success, until the Conference of 1871, when he located. About three years after this, while on a visit at the house of Capt. C. R. Price, near Newport, Giles county, Virginia, he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never entirely recovered. In 1878, he was re-admitted to the travelling connection and given a superannuated relation, which he retained till his death.

During this time he continued to labor under much physical suffering. Though never entirely helpless, he was unable to go abroad. "At times," writes his pastor, Rev. James H. Boyd, "he suffered greatly from acute rheumatism, but he bore his sufferings with wonderful fortitude. So long as he could help himself at all, he seemed to think he would ultimately recover, but so soon as he became helpless he gave up all hope of recovery, and fully resigned himself to the will of the Lord—even desiring to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. His spiritual condition seemed to be good, and his future prospects bright. He loved to converse on the subject of 'personal religion,' and would rejoice whenever told of the progress and prosperity of our Zion."

So writes one who attended upon him in the last stages of his earthly pilgrimage.

In him was fulfilled the scripture: "The path of the just is as the shining light which shineth more and more unto the perfect day." He died in peace at the comfortable and hospitable home of Brother E. F. Payne, near Newport, Virginia, where he had passed his last days. Zealous, laborious, and truly pious, while he had some peculiarities, which might, perhaps, be accounted eccentricities of character, he was yet, emphatically, a "good man," and useful in the hard fields of labor to which he was called. He is now "fallen on sleep," and reposes "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."

Rev. Bishop DAVID S. DOGGETT, D. D.

Whereas, It has pleased the great Head of the church to remove from the chief pastorate during the past year our beloved Bishop David S. Doggett, D. D., who had been appointed by his colleagues to preside over the present session of our Conference, we deem it but proper to place on record a sense of the loss which we, in common with the church at large, have sustained by his departure;

Resolved, That the eminent place which our deceased brother so long occupied in the ministry and councils of the church, and more recently his able and courteous administration of the Episcopal office, causes his removal from us to be deeply felt and deplored.

Resolved, That while we gratefully recognize the Providence that for years enriched and blest the church with his rare endowments and useful labors, we humbly submit to the same Providence in withdrawing him, at a ripe age, from the scene of his earthly toils, assured, as we are, that he has entered upon his rest and reward in Heaven.

Resolved, That while we revere his memory, we will seek to emulate his purity of life and his fidelity, and zeal in the ministry of the Lord Jesus.

Resolved, That these memorial resolutions be published in the Episcopal Methodist, the Richmond Christian Advocate, and the Nashville Advocate, and that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother and father in Israel, with an expression of the sincere sympathy of this body with them in their bereavement.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION.

Wesleyan Female Institute.

We take great pleasure in reporting this, our Conference school, in a very flourishing condition. With a larger class of boarding pupils than ever before in the history of the Institute, it is a matter of special congratulation that they, and about twenty-five teachers and others, are comfortably quartered under one roof. This is due to the fine addition to the building made last year, the cost of which has now been entirely provided for.

The trouble and burden of the debt on the old Institute building have been relieved, with some additional ones of like character; and the field is now clearing, if it is not already cleared, for a more united application of all the net income to the liquidation of the debt contracted in the purchase of the present site and buildings.

There is a most efficient and harmonious corps of teachers, and all is working well in the cause of a sound Christian education.

Under the care of its accomplished President, Rev. W. A. Harris, D.D., and his excellent board of teachers, your committee confidently recommend this, our only Conference Institution for the education of young ladies, to the liberal patronage of all having daughters to educate; and we hope that continued prosperity, in increased degree, may, in a few years, remove all burden of debt, and give it untrammelled power for good in the Christian education of the daughters of our land.

The committee refer back to your body for consideration the accompanying memorial from the Board of Trustees.

Randolph Macon College.

It gives us great pleasure to report that the prosperity of this valuable Institution continues unabated. While the number of students is about the same as last year, the number paying partial or full tuition has increased. The debt, which has so long hindered its work and taxed its resources, has now been fully provided for, in good subscriptions—a part of which has already been paid. It is a matter of urgent necessity that the balance should be paid at the earliest practicable moment, so that the entire income of the College may be applied to its legitimate uses, in building up the Institution, and fitting it the better for its noble work; nor should the church throughout the patronizing Conferences be satisfied with this. A sufficient endowment to aid in meeting the current expenses, and to provide against contingencies, is needed, in order to the permanent prosperity of every such Institution. Without this, it cannot expand its work as it should. Without this, no College can meet the demands upon it in these times, and must fail, or be disastrously curtailed in its usefulness. Your Committee express their profound conviction, when they say that steps should be immediately taken to secure this end, and they recommend the plan already devised by the Board of Trustees.

The grade of scholarship in this College is high, and its religious character most decided; and thus it offers to all sending sons thereto the assurance that while their minds will be carefully cultivated, their spiritual nurture will be sedulously cared for.

But your Committee feel that much more than money is needed to bring this and all our Schools for higher education up to their true standard of excellence and their real efficiency in the vitally important work of Christian education; that there is need of deeper, clearer convictions in the minds of our people at large regarding the need of a more thorough education of our sons and daughters, must be admitted. It is further apparent that if this is ever done in such a way as will make it a blessing, and not a curse, it must be under the supervision of the church herself.

The Methodist father of a well endowed son believes that the savings of his life will be better applied for the benefit of his son, if put in farms and stocks or bonds, and left him in his will, than if invested in his thorough culture under Christian influences. Hence, the sad fact meets us on every hand, of Methodists having farms and bonds, increasing in riches, while there are few who, thoroughly educated, are prepared to fill the chairs in the higher seats of Christian learning, and even in our own Colleges. We surely need a general awakening and reformation on this point, in both the convictions and practice of the church.

We submit these suggestions to your serious and prayerful consideration, and hope that methods may be speedily adopted to endow the College, and to stir up the minds of our people to see the need of a more thorough education of the youth of our church.

In view of the present condition of the College, we recommend its continued aid through the Education collection.

Valley Female College.

The Valley Female College, at Winchester, Virginia, under the efficient management of Rev. B. Arbogast, is in prosperous condition. It has our hearty commendation. As to thoroughness of instruction, home comfort and thoughtful care, it is deserving of all praise.

Although during the past year the esteemed President has been disabled by sickness, the high grade of the Institution and its careful management has been fully maintained.

Montgomery Female College.

This Institution, under the successful management of its accomplished principal, Mrs. O. S. Pollock, is a school of high character, and eminently deserves the increased patronage, which we rejoice to learn, it has enjoyed during the present session.

We commend this College, with perfect confidence in the thoroughness of its training, and the high moral tone of all its influences, as eminently deserving the confidence of our people.

Lonoak Female College.

It gives us great pleasure to be able to report the continued and increasing prosperity of this Institution of learning. The past year has been the most prosperous in its history. Its thorough discipline, with culture and excellent moral training, justly merit the liberal patronage it has received. Bro. Hyde is eminently qualified for this work, and we take pleasure in commending the school to the continued patronage of our friends. We recommend his reappointment to the same position.

We learn, with pleasure, that Miss Blanche Gilbert, as principal of this school, meets with the success she so well deserves, and recommend it, under her care, to all our friends in that section of our Conference.

S. K. COX, Chairman.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Your Committee, after a careful consideration of the condition and wants of our Sunday-School work, respectfully report as follows :

1. The increased interest shown by our people in this department of our Church work, is a matter of profound gratitude to the Great Head of the Church. Our statistics show a gratifying increase, from year to year, both in the number and prosperity of the schools. One especially gratifying feature, drawn from reports made to our District Conferences, is the determination to continue our country schools through the winter whenever it is at all practicable to do so. We notice, too, a gratifying increase in the circulation of our Sunday-School literature. Our people are gradually learning that a liberal expenditure of their means for Sunday-School purposes, is the best investment that they can make of that amount of money, yielding, "in due season," the most valuable fruits, "some thirty, some sixty, and some one hundred fold."

While we bless God, who has given us this increase, we acknowledge the valuable aid afforded the ministry and the lay workers in our several charges, by the Sunday-School society of our Conference, whose annual conventions have contributed so much to awaken our people on this subject ; and we express the hope that our charges, more generally, will send delegates to these conventions, and that auxilliary societies will soon be organized in every District.

2. We recommend that all our officers and teachers subscribe for the Sunday-School Magazine for their own use—the reduced price at which it is now furnished putting it within their easy reach. This would furnish, without cost to the schools, a sufficient number of Lesson Quarterlies, leaving whatever can be collected for supplies to be used in payment for The Infant Class, Our Little People and The Sunday-School Visitor, of which the supply should be abundant. The schools should also be well furnished with our catechisms, especially Bishop McTyeire's Catechisms on Church Government and Bible History ; also, the Catechism for children, by Dr. J. C. Granberry.

3. We call attention to the disciplinary requirement of organizing Sunday-School Missionary Societies whenever it is practicable ; and we recommend that our schools subscribe for the Advocate of Missions, as the best available means of disseminating Missionary intelligence.

4. Your Committee are profoundly impressed with the importance of Sunday-School song, and earnestly recommend that all our schools be thoroughly furnished with suitable books, from which the children may be taught to sing; that, in addition to the Sunday-School music book, they be furnished with the New Abridged Hymn and Tune Book, and that the children be taught to sing the standard hymns of the Church, as the best possible means of restoring the true spirit and practice of congregational singing among us.

At this point, however, we feel called upon to utter a note of warning against singing as a mere pastime, and allowing schools, intended for the study of God's word, to degenerate into mere singing schools. "LET US SING UNTO THE LORD," adopting Mr. Wesley's rule of stopping at the end of the verse, and calling attention to the teaching of the hymn; and by everything that we can do, try to impress the children that song is as solemn an act of worship as even prayer itself.

5. We recommend that the Conference respectfully request the Bishop to appoint one of our preachers as Sunday-School Secretary, to devote his entire time to the work, and we pledge to the said secretary, if he shall be appointed, our earnest co-operation and support.

GEORGE T. TYLER, Chairman.

A. P. BOUDE, Secretary.

MEMORIAL FROM ROANOKE DISTRICT.

Resolutions passed by the Roanoke District Conference, at its session held in Fincastle, Botetourt county, Va., September 5th, 1880:

Resolved, That the Annual Conference be respectfully requested to digest a plan for the contemplated division or rearrangement of our Conference territory, and to this end, that it appoint a committee, at its ensuing session, to consider the subject, and report at the succeeding session of the Conference.

Resolved further, That our Annual Conference be requested to ask for the appointment of a similar committee from the Virginia and Holston Conferences.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

The committee beg leave to make the following report :

Whereas, We have heard with great pleasure, from the agent of the publishing house, of its continued prosperity, and that nearly all the debt has been funded in the four per cent. bonds, and that there is a prospect that this matter will be fully adjusted on a sound basis at an early day ;

Resolved, That we will try to enlarge the business of the house, so as further to increase its prosperity.

Resolved, That we recommend the Quarterly Review and Christian Advocate to our people, and will seek to largely increase the subscription lists.

Resolved, That we warmly commend our Sunday-school literature, and insist that our people should use our own publications in the Sunday schools under our charge. We urge this all the more strongly because in a number of our schools the issues of private publishing houses are being used.

Resolved, That increased efforts be made to introduce the books of our publishing house and our own religious newspapers among our people.

Resolved, That we make diligent efforts to extend the circulation of the Advocate of Missions, believing that this will greatly benefit the missionary cause.

Resolved, That we cordially recommend the Book Depository of our Church in Baltimore, under the management of Rev. B. F. Ball, and suggest that all orders for books and periodicals be sent through him.

Resolved, That in view of the present great and prospective greater cheapening of books, we suggest to our publishing house that they meet this issue promptly, and, as soon as practicable, make large reductions in the prices of our books and periodicals.

Resolved, That we cordially commend the Theological and Homeletic Monthly, published at Richmond, Va., by Rev. R. N. Sledd, D.D.

Resolved, That we continue to recommend the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist, published and owned by Rev. Dr. Cox, and hope for its larger prosperity.

JNO. LANDSTREET, Chairman.

W. K. BOYLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following report :

The evil of intemperance, indulgence in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, notwithstanding the success that has attended the efforts of the Friends of Temperance in many sections of the country, is on the increase to an alarming extent.

The time has arrived for the Christian Church to take a more decided stand in order to suppress this monstrous enemy of God and man.

The appeal of the suffering, the woes of the fallen, cry for help to those who, by the power of the Divine Spirit and the mercy of God, have been delivered from its venomous fangs.

The Christian Church has it in its power, by the help of God, to exert a mighty influence for its entire suppression, which should be immediately exerted, and co-operating with others, concentrate the efforts of all lovers of God and humanity for its entire suppression.

To that end we recommend our people to assert and maintain the principles of our holy religion and co-operate with all good men in their efforts to accomplish the abatement of this great evil, and banish it from our borders. Satisfied that with the hearty co-operation of all who know the evil it has afflicted and the sorrow it has brought to many hearts and homes, a mighty blow can be struck, which will, it is hoped, entirely destroy this enemy, and bring down upon us the blessing of those who are ready to perish, as well as the blessing of God ; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That as a Conference of Christian ministers and laymen, we deplore the prevalence of intemperance, and regret that the statistics of the country show an increase in the manufacture of that which produces it ; and in view of these facts we recommend our people to combine for its suppression, by calling to aid and co-operating with all who are willing to endeavor to break up the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

2. That the preachers be requested to make known to their congregations these views, and request them earnestly to co-operate with us and others in combatting this great evil—the suppression of which is in the interest of humanity, and a labor of love approved of God.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the committee,

B. S. HIGHLEY, Chairman.

WM. J. KING, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on the Bible Cause have had before them the subject in general, and the letter referred to them from the Secretary of the Virginia State Bible Society. We are happy to learn that the work of distributing the Bible is still progressing. During the year, ending March, 1881, through the Virginia Bible Society, 45,522 families were visited ; 7,632 families, 3,865 individuals found destitute, and 137 Sunday-schools were supplied ; 25,062 Bibles were sold, and 6,819 gratuitously distributed. In doing this work, $7,698 were expended. This certainly will be grateful to all who feel an interest in the circulation of the Holy Scriptures. Inasmuch, therefore, as the Word of God is the "Sword of the Spirit," we believe that a written copy of it should be placed in every family, and in the hands of every man, woman and child ; for while preaching is necessary for the conversion of men, the reading of God's Word only can make them "wise unto salvation," and prepare them for every good work. Much of the labor of preaching will fail when people are destitute of the Holy Scriptures, and still fails to accomplish the great end of presenting men perfect in Christ Jesus, when the Bible is not read and regularly studied. We regard it, then, to be our duty to be co-workers in this noble enterprise. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. That we encourage and assist regular Bible Society agents, whenever they come within the bounds of our work.

2. That collections be taken up for the Bible Society in all our Stations and Circuits.

Resolved, That this Conference expresses its gratification at the election of Rev. R. N. Sledd, D. D., as successor to the late Bishop Doggett in the Presidency of the Virginia Bible Society.

Respectfully submitted,

F. H. RICHEY, Chairman.

HENRY P. HAMILL, Secretary.

REPORT ON COMMUNICATION FROM WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The committee, to whom was referred the communication of the Woman's Missionary Society, respectfully report the following resolution for adoption by the Conference :

Resolved, That the Conference has heard with pleasure of the successful organization of the Baltimore Conference Woman's Missionary Society, and of the auxiliary societies so far formed; and we hereby tender to the earnest workers engaged in this important branch of missionary work, the cordial co-operation and support of the Conference, and urge all the members of this Conference to give the auxiliary societies all the aid they can, and to impress upon their congregations the formation of these auxiliary societies in every charge, and recommend the Woman's Missionary Advocate to the patronage of our people.

W. H. D. HARPER, Chairman.

J. H. H. FIGGATT, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HAMILTON AND HILLSBORO CHURCH PROPERTY.

The committee appointed to inquire what, if any, action be necessary in regard to the Hamilton and Hillsboro Church property, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

Resolved, That it is an occasion for regret that any circumstance should have arisen to mar the happy result of the just and harmonious action of the Cape May commission in regard to all property in dispute between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Resolved, That as the two cases referred to were under the special adjudication of that commission, its decision should have been regarded as final, and should have put an estoppel to all proceedings in relation thereto.

Resolved, That while we sincerely sympathize with our brethren on Hamilton and Hillsboro circuits in the annoyance and loss to which they have been subjected, we advise them, in a spirit of Christian meekness, to submit to the wrong, rather than resort to further litigation and effort to redress it, leaving their case to the candid judgment of the public and of the authorities of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That a copy of this report be forwarded by the Secretary of this Conference to the Presiding Bishop of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.
